The Journey

Author-Unknown

Life is just a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, we all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place far greater than we know.
for some the journey's quicker, for some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward
And find an everlasting peace... Together with the Lord.

Our Gratitude

You have understood our loss and demonstrated your friendship.

You have felt our loss and offered your prayers.

You have seen our need and rendered your love.

We are eternally grateful for your gifts of friendship, prayer and love during this very difficult time.

Celebration of Love and Remembrance for

Brandon Parham Mauney

"...when nothing else could help; Love lifted me!"

Saturday, February 22, 2014
2:00 p.m.

Shiloh Baptist Church
916 East 12th Street
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Reverend Dr. Paul A. Lowe, Jr., Pastor/Officiating

Loved and Lifted!

Mr. Brandon Parham Mauney was born to the late Charles and Brenda Parham Mauney in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on February 13, 1969.

He received his early childhood and secondary education in the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and he was a proud graduate of Carver High School in the class of 1987.

Following high school graduation, Brandon attended Shaw University in Raleigh, NC. Subsequently he returned to his hometown and enrolled at Winston-Salem State University where he earned a bachelors of science degree in Management Information Systems.

Brandon's Christian upbringing led the youngster to his baptism and membership at Shiloh Baptist Church in Winston-Salem. The young man's Christian walk continued in the fellowship that he found as a member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. He was a member of Salem Lodge #139, PHA.

He was a dedicated and professional operations systems engineer for Wells Fargo Bank in Charlotte, until his untimely death at his home in that city on Sunday, February 16, 2014.

The abiding love of family and friends was Brandon's ultimate valediction. The circle of survivors who loved him dearly and who will remember him fondly includes his brother and sisters, Charles Mauney, Jr, Charlene (Andrew Dennis) Royster, Ianthe Nivens and Barena Mauney; seven nieces and nephews, Shuntina Mauney, Te-Je Clark, LaKisha Mauney, Nico Mauney, Tanya N. Fulton, Seddrick Kimbrough and Steven Nivens, Jr.; his former wife, Victoria France; twelve great nieces and nephews; three aunts, Laura (Jerome) Murphy, Daisy Mauney and Angela Mauney; an uncle, Johnnie Landon; his "Auntie Dear," Maxine Simmons; good friends, LaShun Huntley, J. Scott Miller, Cribut Williamson and Lee Witherspoon; many extended family members and numerous other friends.

"...but the Master of the sea heard my despairing cry, from the waters lifted me now safe am I."
