*And now though we are grieving,
We want you to understand
That we will not forget your kindness,
How you gave that helping hand.*

*Friends like you are very precious
And today it is our prayer
That God will bless you for your kindness
And keep you in his care.*

The Model Dad

No doubt, no fear, nor anxious care, but comforted by staff and rod, in the faith-brightened hour of death... how beautiful to be with God!

The journey of life for Jerry Perry began on June 15, 1918 in Hurtsboro, Alabama, where he was the eleventh of fourteen children born to the late Frank and Naomi "Missie" Grant Perry. It was in that city where young Jerry's legacy of life, labor and love began and covered the span of 96 years.

Mr. Perry began his early Christian education in 25th Avenue Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama where he held a lifetime membership.

Jerry Perry was a cotton farmer who worked hard to provide for his family and he encouraged his children to get an education. His personal values and work ethic were aptly applied in the course of his employment with United States Steel in Birmingham for over thirty-eight years before retiring. And the example that he set did not go unnoticed by his twin daughters, Pauline and Paulette, who loved and respected him for all of his efforts.

He loved the Lord, his family and baseball, especially the Atlanta Braves Baseball Team. Mr. Jerry Perry was a proud member of "the greatest generation" who loved his country and gave honorable service for his country in the United States Army during WWII.

Jerry Perry answered the Lord's call for him to come home at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston-Salem, NC on Monday, November 24, 2014. His Victory in Jesus takes place as he joins his parents and twelve siblings who all preceded him in death.

Those family members who survive and who will forever celebrate and cherish this model dad's legacy of love, loyalty and labor include his daughters, Pauline Perry (Wesley) Clowers and Paulette Perry (Aldeen) Smith; six grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; his brother, Frank Perry, Jr. of Chicago, Illinois; several nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

*Beyond the partings and the pains,
Beyond the sighing and the tears,
Oh, beautiful to be with God
Through all the endless, blessed years —*

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow start without me and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I'll know you miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for and so much to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, I thought for just a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see a smile.

But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.

So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me—
I'm right here - In your heart.

Celebrating Daddy

*Dear Daddy, we're all assembled
We've come to honor you
To share sweet recollections
And express our gratitude*

*You were a great example
Of the best way one can live
Your generous, loving spirit
Was a daily gift you chose to give*

*And we knew that we were privileged
To have a daddy so dear
You shared our lives, both the good and bad a true patriarch throughout the years*

*You took each day and challenge
Exactly as it came
Your spirit remained steadfast
Life couldn't make you change*

*Quite often we would marvel
At the determination found in you
How much we'll miss your courage
And your fearless attitude!*

*Still, we know that you'll continue to be the incredible soul you are
And though we cannot see you
We trust you'll never be far*

*Because a soul so special
Can never truly go away
You'll always be an inspiration
Blessing our lives each day*

*So as we bid you farewell... for now
It's with deepest love and gratitude
Counting our lives quite blessed to have known
A daddy as wonderful as you*
