MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

Author: Unknown

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was one shared.
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We appreciate the many expressions of love and friendship shown to us during these very difficult days of loss and remembrance of our beloved, John Henry Griggs, Jr.
May God bless each of you for your kindness.

OBITUARY

“Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.”
Psalm 119:11

Mr. John Henry Griggs, Jr. was born to the late John Henry Griggs, Sr. and Minister Dorothy B. Griggs in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on September 30, 1942.

He was a product of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System. And prior to declining health, he was employed as a material handler at Shepherd Veneer Company in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Griggs was of the Holiness Faith. He loved the Lord and while physically able, he faithfully supported the ministries of his church. He was passionate about the Word of God and was often found reading his Bible.

On Monday, July 6, 2015, Mr. John Henry Griggs, Jr. passed away unexpectedly at his home in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his wife, Patty S. Griggs.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of him include his brother, Reverend Calvester (Geraldine) Griggs; his sister, Minister Diane (Ardeal) Roseboro; a devoted nephew, Ardeal L. Roseboro, Jr.; a host of nieces, nephews and extended family members.

“Those we Love remain with us,
for Love itself lives on.
And our cherished memories will never fade,
because our loved one is gone.”
