

Obituary

Freddie Lee Jackson, 78, of Kernersville, NC, passed away Friday, May 27, at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home after a period of declining health.

Mr. Jackson was born February 1, 1933, in Darlington, SC and was a Korean era Army veteran. He moved to Winston-Salem in 1956 and retired from US Air (formerly Piedmont Airlines) after 34 years of service.

Mr. Jackson was a dedicated member of Reynolds Temple CME Church, where he was active on the Usher, Stewards, and Trustee boards, and served as church treasurer for many years. He was a generous and unselfish volunteer in the church and local community.

Mr. Jackson was a loyal member of the Prince Hall Masons and was elected and installed as Worshipful Master of Ionic Lodge No.72 in 2001.

Preceding him in death was his wife of nearly 49 years, Alexandra, parents, Levi and Eloise Jackson, brothers: Herman, George, Levi Jr., and Robert, and sisters, Marylee Samuel and Florrie Mae Smith.

He leaves behind daughter Sandra Jackson of Alexandria, VA; sisters: Magnolia Murray (Ben) of Richmond, VA; Eloise Johnson of Philadelphia; Ruth Turner of Buffalo, NY; and Rebecca Jackson, who cared for him for four years in Kernersville; in-laws Ben and Edith Roseboro of Winston-Salem; nieces, nephews, numerous grand nieces and nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

"Sometimes it's hard to understand
And harder still to say
Thy will be done when sorrow comes.
And sadness fills our day.
But faith was meant for times like these,
And if we take God's hand,
With loving wisdom He will help
Our hearts to understand."

To Thank You

For all the kind thoughts.
For all the kind words.
For all the kind deeds.
For all the love.
For all the prayers.
For all!
To all!
We thank you.

*We do not lose the ones we love,
They only go before,
Where there is everlasting life,
Where sorrow is no more;
There the sound will always live
and peace is everywhere;
We do not lose the ones we love-
God takes them in his care.*
