

Flower Bearers

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority
Phi Omega Chapter

Pall Bearers

Deacons

Walking through the Valley

Although death of those you love may catch you unawares, we wade through the grief to find joy on the other side – With Faith.

We don't know why the sun chooses to shine or the birds have the right to sing. God will help see us through – With Faith.

Gotta keep putting one foot in front of the other.

Gotta keep on living, pushing and praying along the way– With Faith.

Tears try to consume your spirit; heart heavy, mind restless, and saying goodbye–With Faith.

Allow the memories to be your strength and God to lift you up – With Faith.

Know that God will never, ever leave you alone. You will miss them, but you will see them again – With Faith.

By Synthia Shelby

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with heartfelt appreciation all the calls, cards, love and concern you have shown during the passing of our loved one. It is because of your kindness and God's love that we are strengthened. We ask that you continue to hold us in your prayers in the days to come.

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, NC 27101-3030
336.722.8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Celebration of Life

For

Lisa Christine Clarke

August 16, 1968~January 31, 2012

Saturday, February 4, 2012

Visitation 12:00 Noon

Service 1:00 PM

First Baptist Church

700 North Highland Avenue

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Reverend Darryl Aaron, Senior Pastor Officiating

Order of Service

Prelude Mrs. Janet Campbell

Processional Organist

Opening Selection “Order My Steps” Choir

Scriptures:
Old Testament Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 Clergy
New Testament Romans 8:28-39 Reverend Edna West

Prayer of Consolation Rev. Glenn Pettiford

Tributes
Work
Community
Family Ms. Synthia Shelby

Solo Mr. Brandon Gaines

Acknowledgements Rev. Darryl Aaron

Eulogy Rev. Darryl Aaron

Recessional “Soon and Very Soon” Choir

Interment
Baileytown Family Cemetery
Walnut Cove, North Carolina

Obituary

Ms. Lisa Christine Clarke, 43, was born on August 16, 1968 in Jamaica, NY to Bonnie Lash and Keith Clarke. She passed away unexpectedly Tuesday, January 31, 2012 at WakeMed Hospital.

Lisa was educated at Norman High School in Norman, Oklahoma where she was active in the show choir and orchestra. She graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1990. She achieved her Masters of Divinity from Shaw University in 2005.

Lisa was previously employed at Step One, a non-profit organization for substance abuse and prevention. She served as a Prevention Specialist at this organization for 10 years. She was a Public Health Program Supervisor for the Women’s Branch of the Division of Public Health for the State of North Carolina.

She became a member of Phi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Her recipe for life was that you needed to always stir in tons of laughter and joy. Spice it up with a little “Sexual Healing”, that she found in Charlestown, SC. Blend in the aroma of her cooking, which birthed a new business, Bacon. Sprinkle in the music that soothed her soul, like ‘Sweet Honey in the Rock’, ‘Lionel Richie’, ‘Anthony Hamilton’, and ‘Mary J’. Mix in the care that she always had for her family, friends, colleagues and even strangers. Fold in her service to the Lord through her daily work, then stir in her enthusiasm for travel to places far and wide. She was a beautiful light to all who had the opportunity to know and love her. She was a source of great joy, laughter and strength to her mother, father, sisters, brother, grandmother, family and countless friends. Lisa was an avid football fan and loved the Steelers.

Lisa was preceded in death by two grandfathers; David L. Lash, Sr. and Edward Clarke; and a grandmother; Marie Clarke. Her memories will be cherished by her mother, Bonnie Lash Freeman; father, Keith (Kathleen) Clarke; grandmother, Wilhelmena Lash; two sisters, Colsaria (James) Henderson and Amanda Clarke; one brother, Jahni Clarke; an uncle, David Lash; an aunt Kim (William) Gillespie; cousin, Benjamin Lash, niece, Caperton Henderson; special friend, Angie Forrest; other relatives and friends.